Mock exam papers infringing copyright of HKEAA

Recently the HKEAA noticed that some alleged ‘2010 HKCE’ examination papers are being circulated on the internet. These papers are not published by the HKEAA and they are definitely not the 2010 HKCE examination papers. We are concerned that candidates may be misled by the circulated papers as they resemble closely the HKEAA examination papers in terms of format and layout, and some even bear the logo and the name of Hong Kong Examinations and Assessment Authority. Some of these circulated papers also use materials or photographs from past examination papers of HKEAA without our prior permission. We reserve the rights to take legal actions against any infringement of our trademark and copyright.

Please contact us (phone: 3628 8860, or fax: 3628 8928, or email: ce@hkeaa.edu.hk / al@hkeaa.edu.hk) if you can provide any information related to the circulated papers, including their sources, so that we can follow up accordingly.
