The Special Notice, if any, is in a bright yellow envelope (see Specimen 9). If there is a Special Notice for the session, make an announcement according to the instructions in the Special Notice and write down the contents of the Special Notice on the blackboard/notice board for the candidates’ reference, particularly the latecomers.

Notes:

- (1) Candidates using the special question paper must be provided with a set of normal question paper. For candidates being granted exemption from some of the questions (including an abridged version of question paper), they will not be provided with the normal question paper so as not to cause confusion. (If the CS/invigilators use the Time Reminder Cards, please add the announcement below:)

As this centre accommodates candidates with different examination finishing times, the CS/invigilators will use the Time Reminder Cards to remind individual candidates about the start/end of the supervised breaks, the remaining examination time and the end of the examination.

According to the clock in the examination centre (my watch), the time is _____. You may now start.

- 14.4 After the 'You may now start' announcement, the CS/Invigilators should write the actual starting time on the blackboard/notice board for the information of candidates and invigilators (if applicable).
- 14.5 The CS/Invigilators should avoid the practice of writing up the starting times in advance, and should do this only when the precise times are known. If the examination centre has a clock visible to the candidates and is functioning properly (see Notes below), the CS should time the examination according to that clock. The CS/Invigilators must ensure that candidates are given the full amount of time as specified on their Examination Timetable for Special Centre (including Extra Time Allowance). No extra time should be given to the candidates for reading the questions or for any other reason without specific instructions from the HKEAA.

 - (3) If there is no clock in the examination centre, the CS/invigilators should count the time using his/her own watch.
- 14.6 The CS/Invigilators should ensure that all examinations start punctually as scheduled in the Examination Timetable for Special Centre. If under special circumstances an examination has to be delayed under special circumstances (e.g. due to bad weather or insufficient question papers being made available), the CS/Invigilators should ensure that the candidates are given the full amount of time as specified on the Examination Timetable for Special Centre (including Extra Time Allowance). Under no circumstances should an examination start before the scheduled time.
- 14.7 Write the actual starting time and finishing time at the end of the session in the spaces provided on the Sessional Report (for Elective Subjects) (SEN Centres)(See Specimen 20B).

If there is an additional candidate, the CS/invigilator will receive the 'Additional Candidate Attendance List' (see Specimen 17B) and additional personalised barcode sheet for the candidate concerned. The CS should refer to Section IIIA paragraph 7.2 of the CS Handbook (SEN Centres) while the invigilators should refer to paragraph 24.2(2) of the Notes for the Guidance of Invigilators (SEN Centres).

18.2 Candidates wishing to leave during the permitted time must raise their hand to summon a/an CS/invigilator. Before a candidate is given permission to leave, the CS/invigilator should ensure that (1) the candidate number has been entered and barcode labels have been affixed in the designated spaces of the answer script even if no attempt has been made to answer any questions; and (2) the question number box on each page of the answer script has been marked. Early leavers are NOT allowed to take away the question papers (unless the examination of that paper has ended in normal centres).

- 18.3 The CS/invigilators should remind the candidates that those in breach of the above regulations may receive a mark penalty and are liable to severe penalties if cheating is suspected. The CS/invigilators should report in detail (time of the incident, circumstances, etc.) any candidate who has left the examination centre without permission or who has taken away the question paper on Report Form SR4g (see Specimen 23A).
- 18.4 If a candidate claims to be sick and wishes to leave outside the permitted time, he/she should state his/her reasons on Report Form SR4g for follow-up by the HKEAA. He/she has to write his/her name and address in the space provided on the form. Please complete the attendance taking for the candidate and follow the script collection procedures as described in paragraph 18.2 before letting the candidate leave.
- 18.5 The question papers and answer scripts of early leavers should be left on the candidates' desks. The answer scripts should be collected at the end of the session together with those of other candidates and placed in the appropriate script envelope while their question papers can be treated as ordinary surplus question papers which can be kept by the school.
