

PSYCHOLOGY

ADVANCED SUPPLEMENTARY LEVEL

AIMS

This syllabus aims to provide candidates with an opportunity to:

1. acquire a basic knowledge of psychological theories and research;
2. consider the applications of this knowledge where appropriate; and
3. develop skills of analysis and evaluation of psychological theories and research.

THE EXAMINATION

The examination will consist of one three-hour paper which will be divided into six sections. Candidates will be required to answer one out of two questions from each section. All questions will carry equal marks.

THE SYLLABUS

Refer to Paper 1 sections 1-6 (i.e. Paper 1 of the Advanced Level syllabus) and the Appendix of the Advanced Level syllabus.