C. Student Learning Profile (SLP)

Information provided in the SLP includes student's other learning experiences, awards/achievements gained outside school, academic performance in school as well as his/her "self-account" (for example, impressive learning experiences, career goal setting, etc.)

1. Does your Institution consider information provided in the SLP when processing application for admission?

Yes, this information is a very important part of the application process for Quest University Canada.

D. Information needed before release of HKDSE results:

1. What is the information, apart from SLP, needed to be provided by the applicant to support his/her application?

We require our applicants to provide:

- a copy of their most recent official transcripts
- an Essay on one of five choices on our website:
www.questu.ca/popups/application_essay.html
- an original piece of work (something that tells us about the students and what they are interested in/ passionate about such as photography, music, artwork, writing, research project, etc)
- participation in an interview with an admissions counselor either face to face, phone, or other peer-to-peer internet program (eg. Skype)

2. What are the qualities of the applicant your Institution is looking for in schools' recommendation other than academic performance?

We are looking for students who are leaders or potential leaders, are intellectually curious, global thinkers, community-minded, adventurous, creative, environmentally aware and passionate.

E. Other Information

1. Please provide further information (if any) regarding undergraduate studies at your Institution (such as scholarship etc.) for prospective students who hold the HKDSE, or the website address for accessing the relevant information.

All information on scholarships and financial aid for Quest University Canada can be found at:
www.questu.ca/admission/costs_financial_assistance/index.php

Normally, students who have completed secondary education in Hong Kong holding the HKDSE should have reached the age of 18.*
