

Cardiff University

	Degree Programme
Does your University accept the HKCEE and HKALE for admission to your University?	Yes. HKCEE grades are considered direct equivalents to GCSE exams. The HKALE grades are equivalent to GCE A-level (apart from mathematics and science subjects where tutors would recognize that a B grade in HKALE is equivalent to an A grade at A-level).
What are the entry requirements for a student with HKCEE and HKALE qualifications entering your University?	Degree programmes at Cardiff University have subject specific requirements. Details may be found in the prospectus or via the University website, http://www.cardiff.ac.uk .
Do students with HKCEE and HKALE qualifications have to sit an entrance examination to enter your University?	No.
Is there a language proficiency test that students with HKCEE and HKALE qualifications wishing to enter your University must take?	No, although some schools may demand that applicant demonstrates a standard of competency in English equivalent to a score of 6.5 in IELTS examinations.
Is there a standard on an international English scale that students with HKCEE and HKALE qualifications wishing to enter your University must reach?	Applicants whose native language is not English are normally required to demonstrate a standard of competency in English equivalent to a score of 6.5 in IELTS examinations.
Are there any other tests that students with HKCEE and HKALE qualifications wishing to enter your University must take? When must they be taken?	No.
Is there an entry quota that applies to students with HKCEE and HKALE qualifications wishing to enter your University?	No, however the number of applications to Medicine, Dentistry and Health Care programmes of study are subject to restrictions in terms of places available to non-EU applicants.
Where can information be obtained on fees and other charges for students with HKCEE and HKALE qualifications wishing to enter your University?	Cardiff University website: http://www.cardiff.ac.uk/fees
Is consideration given to factors other than examination performance for overseas students wishing to apply for entry to your University?	Whilst exam performance is obviously the most important element, there are many other aspects of the application that are taken into consideration, including the academic reference, the personal statement, supporting written work and interview performance, etc. (See UCAS Admission Form, http://www.ucas.ac.uk/apply/info.html) For every course at Cardiff, there are specific selection criteria and these can be found on our website at: www.cardiff.ac.uk
Does your University accept the International Baccalaureate?	Yes.
Does your University accept students if they are under the age of 18 at the time of commencing studies?	Yes, but applicants must satisfy a minimum age requirement of 17 years of age on entry.