

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE, LONDON

| | Degree Programme |
|--|--|
| Does your University/College accept the HKCEE and HKALE for admission to your University/College? | Yes. HKCEE is considered equivalent to the UK GCSE qualification. HKALE is considered equivalent to GCE A-Level. |
| What are the entry requirements for a student with HKCEE and HKALE qualifications entering your University/College? | Entry requirements vary and are dependent on the subject area applied for. Offers of admission for applicants with HKALE are usually made at the same level as GCE A-Level. Please see the on-line prospectus at http://www.ucl.ac.uk/prosp-students/prospectus for specific degree programme grade requirements. |
| Do students with HKCEE and HKALE qualifications have to sit an entrance examination to enter your University/College? | No. |
| Is there a language proficiency test that students with HKCEE and HKALE qualifications wishing to enter your University/College must take? | Applicants from Hong Kong are expected to have a pass at Level 3 (Level 4 for Laws admissions) in the HKCEE English Language or a pass at grade C (grade B for Laws admissions) in the HKALE Use of English. Alternatively, they will need to take one of the standard tests recognised by UCL. |
| Is there a standard on an international English scale that students with HKCEE and HKALE qualifications wishing to enter your University/College must reach? | English Language proficiency requirements vary between faculties. Please see http://www.ucl.ac.uk/prospective-students/undergraduate-study/application-and-entry/english-language/ for a complete list of acceptable English Language qualifications. |
| Are there any other tests that students with HKCEE and HKALE qualifications wishing to enter your University/College must take? When must they be taken? | All applicants applying to study Medicine are required to sit the Biomedical Admissions Test (BMAT), see http://www.bmat.org.uk/ . The test is taken at the beginning of November for entry in the following September. All applicants applying for any Law programme are required to sit the Laws National Admissions Test (LNAT), see http://www.lnat.ac.uk/ . The LNAT must be sat by 15 th January of the admissions cycle in which the application is made. |
| Is there an entry quota that applies to students with HKCEE and HKALE qualifications wishing to enter your University/College? | With the exception of A100 Medicine, there is no quota on overseas students. UCL is restricted by government quota to admitting 25 non-EU applicants per year for Medicine. |
| Where can information be obtained on fees and other charges for students with HKCEE and HKALE qualifications wishing to enter your University/College? | Fees information is available on the UCL website at http://www.ucl.ac.uk/current-students/tuition-fees/ . |
| Is consideration given to factors other than examination performance for overseas students wishing to apply for entry to your University/College? | UCL takes a holistic approach when considering applicants for admission. Examination performance and grade predictions are important but the personal statement and the academic reference are also taken into account. Some subjects might also require samples of written work or a portfolio to be submitted. |
| Does your University/College accept the International Baccalaureate? | Yes. Grade requirements depend on the degree programme applied for. IB requirements are listed in the Prospectus at http://www.ucl.ac.uk/prosp-students/prospectus . |
| Does your University/College accept students if they are under the age of 18 at the time of commencing studies? | With the exception of Medicine, where applicants must be 18 years of age at the point of enrolment, UCL does not have any age restrictions. However, admittance of students under 18 is undertaken in accordance with UCL's policies on safeguarding and child protection. |
