Dr Tong Chong-sze, Secretary General of the Hong Kong Examinations and Assessment Authority (HKEAA) said, "This year will be the final HKALE for school candidates with the launch of the Hong Kong Diploma of Secondary Education Examination. Since the HKEAA took over the administration of HKALE in 1980, over 900,000 candidates had sat the examination."

"These well trusted examinations were conducted with the support of about 200,000 examination personnel who assisted in setting the question papers, invigilation as well as marking and grading over the past three decades," said Dr Tong.

The HKEAA will conduct the final HKALE for private candidates in 2013 and 15 A-level subjects and 16 AS-level subjects will be offered for those who would like to improve their grades.

Arrangements for the release of results:

School candidates may obtain their results notices from their respective schools while private candidates will be notified by post.
