

PRESS RELEASE HKEAA Open Day 2020

The Hong Kong Examinations and Assessment Authority (HKEAA) successfully held its Open Day at the Tsuen Wan Assessment Centre today (11 January). Featuring talks and presentations on the use of various IT systems to ensure quality of public examinations, the annual event was held to enhance understanding of the inner workings of public examinations. Visitors got a chance to gain first-hand information about the marking and grading of public examinations and participate in hands-on demonstrations of onscreen marking, answer scripts scanning and oral examination recording.

Information Seminars on HKDSE Core Subjects

At the next weekend, on Saturday, 18 January, the HKEAA will hold an information day on Hong Kong Diploma of Secondary Education Examination (HKDSE) core subjects. Focusing on the assessment requirements of the four core subjects, the seminars are suitable for senior secondary students preparing to take the examinations.

Registration is open until 12:00nn on 17 January and can be made on the HKEAA website: www.hkeaa.edu.hk/en/events/opendays_2020.html
